

Main Contents of Newsletter No. 39 (April 2009)

1. Ban Ki-moon appeals every country to stop any violence against women
2. Anti-Domestic Violence Network held a tea party for international Women's Day.
3. The Director of the Anti-Domestic Violence Network was invited to the celebration of International Women's Day by UN Beijing
4. Anti-Domestic Violence Network and other women organizations wrote to Beijing government together and suggested that working age should be extended for women cadres and intellectuals
5. Beijing male psychologists action team attended the training
6. Promising, participation and taking action: feedback from male anti-domestic violence action team after training
7. Conclusion and suggestions of report about needs and services for female domestic violence victims
8. Advocating the relevant laws and strategies of protecting human rights from the aspect of actual harmful result of domestic violence
9. "Opinions about preventing and deterring domestic violence" issued in Ningxia